CIVIC IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY HAS MEETING

Flower Show Will Again Be a Feature of Plans for Improving the Appearance of the City.

A most successful meeting of the Civic Improvement society was held yesterday afternoon in the offices of W. D. Sterling in the High school building at which plans for the beautification of the city were made and discussed at length.

The meeting was well attended and as those in attendance are all lovers of flowers it was decided that another flower show, such as was given in the Woman's Club building some months ago, should be repeated this year and August 14th was set aside as the day for the exhibition. No rules to govern the awarding of prizes at that time was decided upon at yesterday afternoon's meeting and the matter was set aside for future consideration.

The flowers exhibited at the last show by the children of this city occupied three large tables in the Woman's club building and it is thought that twice that amount of space will be required for this year's display as many of the children are enthused.

Another matter of considerable importance which was brought before the meeting yesterday afternoon was that of exterminating the cotton which grows on a certain species of cottonwood tree.

While many were of the opinion that the trees should be cut down, it was brought before the meeting that there are other methods of preventing the nuisance without destroying the trees. These suggestions will be acted upon.

A report which was read by the secretary yesterday was encouraging and showed the association to be in a most prosperous condition. The following were elected as officers of the organization to serve for the coming year:

Mrs. Taylor Goodman, president;

W. D. Sterling, secretary; Mrs. J. H.

Burroughs, treasurer; Mrs. John

Strumquist, vice president, first ward;

George E. Brewer, vice president, second ward; Byron H. Ives, vice president third ward; Mrs. C. A. Hudson, vice president, fourth ward.

By the special request of friends Miss Claude Albright at her concert Tuesday night, will sing the time favored "La Paloma" instead of another Spanish song she had considered, and previously sung in Spain.

"La Paloma" is considered one of the sweetest of Spanish songs and owing to it being endeared to the people of New Mexico, it will no doubt please a greater number of Albuquerque's Spanish-speaking people than any other song she could sing. The accompaniment will be harp and violin.

While the program for the concert has not been fully arranged, enough has been completed to announce that Miss Albright will give four distinct numbers herself. One will be in French, one will be an a. and b. number in Italian and German, one in Spanish, and one in English.

The members of the concert company assisting Miss Albright will be announced tomorrow. The program in all probability will be published in full the end of this week or the first of next.

SIMON MONTRAGON AGAIN IN TROUBLE

He is Charged This Time With Being Accessory to the Theft of a Tablet.

For the first time in many months Simon Montragon, the boy thief, visited the police station this morning in custody of an officer. Simon says that he did not steal, and it may be said to the credit of the boy he has shown a great regard for truthfulness during his acquaintance with the police for a year or more.

With Simon at the police station this morning were two other boys, much older and larger than he. One gave the name of Wagner and the other Coleman. Both live in the Fourth ward. It is said by the police that the three were together yesterday and while in the Williams drug store, stole a school tablet. Simon said that Wagner took the tablet and the latter confessed. The Coleman boy is about 14 years of age. He was arrested by Officer Marquette yesterday. The other two boys were taken into custody this morning by Truancy Officer 3811. Wagner, who is much larger than Simon, had just given the little fellow a thumping and left him in the street crying. Wagner ran into his home and locked himself in a room when he saw the officer coming, but was coaxed to come out.

After having been given a lecture, the boys were sent back to school, and ordered to report at police headquarters Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

The case of the three boys this morning developed a good work being done by philanthropic people living in the Fourth ward. These people are furnishing Simon Montragon and other poor children with school books, etc., for their school work. This charity is being done quietly but with such thoroughness that no child living in the Fourth ward can give poverty as the reason for not being in school.

Considerable criticism has been meted out to the press of the city for making news of the unusual episode of Simon Montragon and his former band of young thieves, but it may be said that the charity now making it possible for Simon to get school books is the result of publicity of his deeds.

The principal of the Fourth ward school this morning refused to discuss the recent trouble of Simon for this reason. He said that the boy was unusually bright for his age and knew what was being published about him. He said that Simon was distinguished among the children of the Fourth ward because of this publicity.

If an industrial school is secured during the present legislature or within the next few years, Simon Montragon, by his many deeds, has done more toward securing the school than any other individual in the territory.

SKATING CARNIVAL AT RINK TOMORROW

Tonight will be the last night of Moving Pictures and Musical Program.

Tonight will be the last night of moving pictures and illustrated songs at the rink, as that part of the business has been transferred to the Elks' and will be given in the Elks' theatre, beginning Saturday evening.

Tomorrow night at the rink there will be a grand carnival of skaters. The chairs which have occupied the center of the rink will be removed, thus giving skaters a greater space. Four handsome prizes will be given and special music will add to the event. The management of the rink will hereafter conduct only an up-to-date rink and there will be nothing to interfere with the pleasure of skating. Good music will be furnished and the effort made to cater to those who want to skate.

LAS VEGAS FIGHTER WANTS A MATCH

Wallace Willing to Meet Pettus, Kennedy or Any Other Man in New Mexico.

New Mexico sports are going to see more of the fighting ability of Will Pettus, the Madrid colored boy, if Harry Wallace, the Las Vegas fighter, has his way. In a letter to local persons, Wallace issues a challenge to Pettus and to Kennedy and to any fighter in the country and makes a proposition that would compel a fight should he and some other man be placed in the ring together.

Wallace says that he will meet Pettus any place but Madrid, and gives his reasons for not liking the coal camp. The letter follows:

East Las Vegas, N. M. Jan. 20.
Dear Sir:—Saw in papers where Pettus beat Kennedy in three rounds, now I am willing to come down any time and give Pettus $150 side bet and divide on purse 75 per cent to the winner, and 25 per cent to the loser. I am matched to meet Kennedy here on the 20th. Any time after that I am ready for Pettus. I figure we could draw the largest house ever drawn in Albuquerque, if myself and Pettus are matched there. I would expect that he agree to the following:

That the purse be split 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser; and fight straight Marquis of Queensberry rules; fight at all times in the clinches and breakaways; any number of rounds, or to a finish; and a side bet of $150; catch weight. Each of us to post a forfeit of $40 to show that we mean business.

I know they think Pettus is a wonder down there now, but I know I can beat him any place but Madrid. In event of the bout not being pulled off in Albuquerque we will fight here, but I think there will be more money in it for all concerned if it is pulled off in Albuquerque as I know a bout between Pettus and myself would fill almost any house in Albuquerque. Try your best and get him to fight me. Tell Kennedy to be sure and be here by Friday. His defeat at Pettus' hands will not make any difference to us. Just tell him to keep quiet about it and be sure and be here Friday. Tell him to bring sparring partner along as they are hard to get here. Try your best and get Pettus to meet me. I think I can make him take the full count. He won't have 30 pounds in weight on me either.

Yours truly,
HARRY WALLACE.
